MILITARY OPERATIONS RETARDED

As Long as There Exists a Possibility of the Spanish Naval Force Being at Large There Is an Indisposition to Start the Troop Transports For Cuba-A Consultation of War and Naval Officials With the President at the White House. Thought to Have Considered Expeditions to Porto Rico and Cuba and the Extent of Assistance to Dewey-People at Key West Report That They Expect to Hear News From Schley Very Soon-Sampson Can Help Him.

WASHINGTON, May 27. - Secretary Long said that no word had come from any of the scouting vessels so numerons in West Indian waters concerning the Spanish flying squadron, wherefor he concluded that Cervera was still in Santiago harbor. Supposedly Schley is lying outside watching the entrance to prevent the egress of the Spanish vessels, but, while there is evidence of a certain kind on that fact, there has been no official confirmation of it.

This is a little remarkable in view of the fact that it is only a day's run for one of Schley's swift torpedoboats from Santiago to a cable port in Haiti. There is also a curious lack of information from the newspaper dispatchboats on this point. It was supposed that the censors might have excised from the dispatches of the newspaper men any reference to the fleets, but this would apply, according to the statement of the navy department officials here, only to that part of the dispatches that might relate to the movements and whereabouts of the United States forces, and the censor's rules would not exclude reference to the Spanish squadron.

Notwithstanding the officials profess unshaken confidence in their original belief that the Spanish squadron is securely bottled up in Santiago harbor there is no concealment by them of an intense desire to secure some absolutely trustworthy information on that point. It is not to be doubted that with the question still open the beginning of the military operations is retarded, for as long as there exists a possibility of the Spanish naval force being at large there is an indisposition to start the troop transports for Cuba.

Probably it was this uncertain state of affairs that induced the president to call a consultation at the White House between Secretaries Alger and Long, General Miles and the members of the naval war board, Admiral Sicard, Captain Crowninshield and Captain Mahan. As stated by one of the members of the conference, the purpose was to go over the whole situation from the Philippines to Cuba and Porto Rico and decide just how far the plrns already should be modified to meet existing conditions. This involved a discussion of such important points as the propriety of the immediate advance of the military forces upon Cuba; the credibility of the advices so far had touching the location of the Spanish squadron; the policy of preceding the Cuban expedition, or accompanying it, with one directed against Porto Rico, and, finally, the extent of the military assistance to be sent to Admiral Dewey at

As already indicated, the proceedings were rather in the nature of a consultation than of a war council, where a full decision is demanded at once, so that it is not probable all of these Important questions were disposed of at the council. None of the members of the conference felt authorized to tell what had taken place, but there are thought to be patent indications of a decision to embark military expeditions in the course of the next few days, whether for Cuba or Porto Rico can only be conjectured.

KEY WEST, May 27. - Commodore Schley is believed to have been off Santiago de Cuba and definite information as to the exact situation in so far as it effects Admiral Cervera's squadron may be expected soon.

Rear Admiral Sampson is in a position to proceed quickly to the assistance of Commodore Schley with any or all of his ships on receipt of definite word from Commodore Schley, and at the same time he remains within striking distance of Havana.

If, however, Commodore Schley reports that Admiral Cervera is bottled up in Santiago de Cuba, the naval view is that he will be permitted to finish the business at that point with the ships now under his direct command.

OFFICERS FROM GARCIA.

they Confer With Secretary Alger and General Miles, to Effect Plan of Co-Operation.

WASHINGTON, May 27 .- Secretary Alger and General Miles have conferred with two officers from the staff of General Garcia, General Enrique Collazo and Lieutenant Colonel Charles Hernandez, who come direct from Garcia's headquarters, bearing credentials from him to effect a plan of co-operation with the American forces. They accompanied Lieutenant Rowan of the United States army on his return from Garcia's camp.

Colonel Hernandez says Garcia has his headquarters at Bayamo, one of the large towns in the central part of the island. It was surrendered by the Spanish forces a few weeks ago after Garcia and his troops had maintained a long siege. General Garcia and his staff, with a bodyguard of several hundred men, are quartered inside the city.

In all there are, according to the estimates of General Collazo and Colonel Hernandez, about 20,000 to 25,000 troops actually in the field.

It is understood that the purpose of the present visit of Garcia's officers is to give that general's assurance to the authorities here of his desire to give every possible co-operation to the American movements. Similar assurances have come from General Gomez and have been presented by Secretary Quesada.

SOLDIERS TO AID DEWEY.

War Department Hopes to Get Another Expedition Away Next Week-Hard to Get Transports.

WASHINGTON, May 27.-Little progress was made by the war department officials in securing transports for the Philippines expedition, the only addition obtained being the Ohio, a good sized vessel, which will rapidly be transformed so as to make her available for carrying a large number of men and animals. Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn is still negotiating with the agents of the Northern Pacific Steamship company for the chartering of the six vessels of that line.

There are now three vessels on the Pacific coast chartered by the government available for the second expedition to the Philippines. Such of them as are not already there will be ordered to San Francisco promptly to be put in shape for the work for which they are intended. It is hoped that this may be done by some time next week, so that another detachment of 2,500 men will be sent to reinforce Admiral Dewey.

The department has declined the generous offer made by Hon. Arthur Sewell of Maine to charter the ship Roanoke, owned by him, to the government. The main reason for this is that the Roanoke is a sailing vessel and the officials believe that for transport purposes steamships are preferable.

LONDON, May 27.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says:

"The dominant note of public opinion here is a desire to find some way to honorable peace, as Spain has nothing to gain by an indefinite prolongation of hostilities.

"All idea that France will intervene, however, is now abandoned, and hopes are fixed upon the possibility that Duke Almodovar de Rio, the new minister of foreign affairs, will find some fitting occasion on which to take the initiat-

Captain Aunon, minister of marine, declared in the cortes today (Thursday) that when an opportunity presented itself the cabinet would not fail to do its best to bring about an honorable peace."

London, May 27.—There are renewed sinister predictions of an impending revolution in Spain contained in a special dispatch from Madrid. Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria is said to have strongly advised the queen regent and ner mother, who is now in Madrid, is reported to have given her the same advice, but it is added, the queen regent is determined to remain.

Continuing, the dispatch says: "The defeat of the Spanish fleet, which the best informed people regard as only a question of a few days, is bound to precipitate an outbreak.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.-It was developed here that the Universal Peace union, through its president, Alfred H. Love of this city, prepared and mailed to the queen regent of Spain and Premier Sagasta an appeal asking that government to acknowledge the independence of Cuba in the interests of peace. The appeal was first sent on April 21, four days before this country declared that a state of war existed between Spain and the United States. It was held up, however, in New York, and after two weeks had expired was again in President Love's hands with the seal unbroken and stamped across it with a government stamp a notice that no mail is permitted to go to Spain.

Ex-Governor Hoyt of Wyoming then took the communication to Washington and laid it before the state department in the hope that it might be permitted to go and at the same time to assure the government of its contents. It was not allowed to go through the mails, however, but it was suggested to ex-Governor Hoyt that it might be sent to one of the European bureaus of the union. As a result it was sent to Berne. Switzerland, for transmission to Spain, and is now enroute.

President Love said that on April 9 the union cabled to the queen requesting her to grant an unconditional armistice, and also telegraphed to Cardinal Gibbons to have the pope use his endeavors to bring about the result. "Two days later," Mr. Love said, "the armistice was granted."

He also stated that he was still hopeful that peace may yet be assured, and is awaiting some reply from Spain to the appeal.

WASHINGTON, May 27 .- No substantial progress was made by the senate towards the disposition of the war revenue measure, although it was under consideration for three hours. Speeches were delivered on the bill by Mr. White (Dem., Cala.) and Mr. Teller (Colo.). In his discussion of the latter feature, Mr. White drew out the fact that an amendment was to be offered to the bill by Mr. Gorman (Dem., Md.) placing a tax of one-half of 1 per cent upon certain large corporations.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MAY 27.

THE thousands of brave boys who wear the army blue seem to have stiffened the back bone of our Uncle Sam wonderfully.

THE appointment of his two sons as staff officers in the army prompts the belief that the Hon. Calvin Brice is as smooth as ever.

THE last reports from Washington concerning a campaign in Porto Rico flag. A few weeks' fighting under the right orders should end in undeniable victory, while Blanco and his men in Cuba would be eating their pride and boot tops in the absence of anything more serious to do.

THE Republicans of Ohio are not particularly interested in the effort of any disgruntled politicians to gain control of the state convention, it matters not whether the present program provides for the selection of Senator Hanna or some other man as temporary chairman. They do know, however, that they will nominate a clean ticket, on a platform that will endorse enthusiastically the policy of William McKinley.

THE NEW PARTY.

No one seriously expects the political party formed in Columbus this week to amount to much at any time in its career, for it is born under conditions not calculated to produce long life and unusual development. Its leaders are men with hobbies that have at some time or other been tried in other parties. Not meet. ing with favor, and in more than one instance being bundled bag and baggage out into the cold unsympathetic world, they have gathered themselves and their ideas together and called it a political party. It may last through one campaign, but even its best friends cannot hope for a longer continuance in its present form. Many men of many minds do not make good substantial party organizations, particularly when those minds are bent upon forcing the public to swallow a dose as useless as it is unpalatable. If the party does not die soon it will be because it has never

TERRITORIAL EXPANSION.

We may or may not know what to do with Cuba, Porto Rico or the Philippines after our brave boys in blue have firmly planted the Stars and Stripes upon their shores, but if the sentiment of the American people does not suddenly change any attempt to remove the flag will meet with the strongest opposition at home. They argue that we have enough territory and colonies would only bring trouble and expense, but of what use is our splendid government if we cannot share it with the world? How much better to allow these poor people to remain under the protecting folds of Old Glory than to turn them again over them to govern themselves, a fate, perhaps, not a whit less cruel. Their annexation to the United States would certainly settle to the satisfaction of all some very important questions of tariff, while our importance among the nations of the world would be visibly increased.

Officer Grim said the marshal had asked for a man and had given him the place two months ago, and Mayor Bough remarked that he could see no necessity for the marshal to have a man with him all the time. About 9 o'clock he received a message stating that John Allison was seen going to Wellsville with a set of harness on a buck board, and that his actions were very suspicious. There were present at the meeting Mayor Bough, Councilmen Stewart, Cain and Seckerson and Officers Grim, Whan, McMillan and Cochran.

Mr. Stewart said he was not in favor of a heavy uniform but wanted something light. He thought all officers should be uniformed so that they would it up." be known as officers. He also favored a helmet, but said he would not insist on a belt and buckle.

Officer Grim objected to wearing a pay $10 toward a uniform as the officers no authority." could pay $24 or $25 for their suits sent the matter to council and would agree to pay for the helmets.

The matter of purchasing the uniforms was left to the officers, and a discussion over the length of the clubs was commenced. Some people favored 14 inch clubs while, Officer Whan said it would be a good idea to select clubs 24 inches long so that an officer could hit around a corner. It was finally decided to purchase 14 inch clubs.

Mayor Bough said:

Mr. Stewart reviewed the history of former forces, and did not favor the idea and wanted to wait until they could see Chief Johnson.

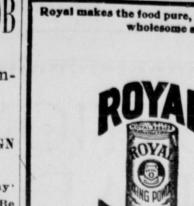

Mayor Bough remarked that the chief had nothing to do with it, and Messrs. Seckerson and Stewart said that the officers could be assured that they would get a fair deal.

Officer Grim said the marshal had asked for a man and had given him the place two months ago, and Mayor Bough remarked that he could see no necessity for the marshal to have a man with him all the time. He said the question had arisen in regard to Mr. Cochran, who did not care to go on unless he got some day turn, and he would like to have the matter settled as soon

Mr. Cochran remarked that they could fix it up to suit themselves, and he would drop out and they could get a man in his

Mr. Stewart ended the discussion by stating that all would get a fair deal, and the matter would be arranged when Mr. Ashbaugn came home.

About 9 o'clock he received a message stating that John Allison was seen going to Wellsville with a set of harness on a buck board, and that his actions were very suspicious. Chief Johnson went to Wellsville, and, soliciting the assistance of Constable Thorn, started out the McQueen's run road. About three miles out they captured Allison and a companion named Stafford. They were driving in a buck board, but had no loose harness with them. They were leading a horse, but as yet it is not known whether the animal was stolen.

Miss Brehm Did Her Best at City Hall.

THEY SHOULD GOVERN

Some Reasons For the Advancement of Disfranchised-An Excellent Lecture by a Talented Lady.

Miss Marie Brehm delivered an interesting lecture last night at city hall. In part she said:

union it is but natural for the superintendent of each to endeavor to convince franchise, and it is most important.

"In a republic every question must be ment is the only one the liquor dealers oppose and resolve against.

"Women have been taught for 6,000 years that suffrage would not be a good thing for them. Deborah was more courageous than the new woman, she was judge of Israel. Hildah taught in a college while her husband was keeper of the king's wardrobe. It changed the usual order, the wife a teacher, the man sewing on buttons.

"The ideal woman spoken of in the last chapter of Proverbs not only clothed her household in purple and fine linen, but she bought land and dealt with merchantmen

"The Bible should be taken as a whole, and Christ's attitude toward the woman of his day was always that of perfect equality. No woman ever betrayed the Master with a kiss. No woman spat upon him or put a crown of thorns upon his brow. But the box of precious ointment is spoken of whereever the Bible shall be heard. The ministering of their substance to him is what we read of.

"The greatest claim that women can ever make is that Christ paid just as great a price for her redemption as for man's. Not what Paul gave as instruction for special cases, but what the Book as a whole teaches. Eyen Paul learns this at the last as his final summing up of the matter: 'Neither Jew nor Greek, neither bond or free, neither male nor female, but all one.'

"When man wishes to embody some great idea he always chooses a woman to represent that idea. The Goddess of Liberty; the picture of justice, a woman holding scales with a bandage over her eyes. Poor dear! How many women still keep that bandage on!

"Chicago offered a prize for the best embodiment of her work in securing the courted World's fair, awarded it to the statue of a young woman, with a determined air and for a motto, 'I Will.' Love, charity, mercy, hope, all these we always see represented by a woman. A woman's head adorns the silver dollar, while on the copper cents we see a man's head.

"It is granted that woman's influence has always been for good. Says someone, 'Do you really think that women will vote?' She would answer, 'I do, and before long!' We are living in a fast age. Steam and electricity carry us quickly. A thought is carried around the globe in but a few seconds, unless someone cuts the cable. Sentiment is being made along the line of moral reform with the same rapidity with which we are moving along. The good old time for which a few sigh has few charms.

"Columbus went to a woman for support with his great project, and a woman sacrificed her pleasures in the interests of science. Had Queen Isabella forseen the present situation it is probable she would have refused. It took 300 years for the world to realize what it owed to Columbus for his wonderful conrage and lofty ambition. So we can draw some solace from the fact that Neal Dow had his birthday observed throughout the world while he yet lived. Susan B. Anthony, that great apostle of the equality of the sexes, lived long enough to be showered with roses in the very same town in which she had formerly been showered with cabbages, and Frances E. Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mrs. George Clark and J. Q. The meeting of the ladies' auxiliary to the missionary convention was held on Monday and part of Tuesday. The balance of the time until Thursday evening was filled by the regular program of the association.

Several missionaries from foreign countries were in attendance, and a most enjoyable program was given. A large number of delegates were in attendance.

THEIR FIRST CAPTURE.

Soldiers Made It Warm For a Lot of Bad Boys

The soldiers drilled last night, and were so pressed by the crowd at the fair ground that they could do nothing. Then they marched up town, and were met by as disgraceful an exhibition of hoodlumism ever seen in town.

The soldiers encountered a mob of small boys, who hooted and pelted them as they marched along. The din was fearful, annoying the soldiers so that a squad was sent to capture them, and the manner in which they did it speaks well for what they could do in active service. They rounded up about 20 boys, ranging in age from 8 to 14 years, and marched them to jail, where they remained some time before being released.

It is hoped the soldiers will not be called upon to repeat the performance, as the next time the punishment will be Wednesday at 2 o'clock about 400 delegates met, and a union was effected that Mr. Vandyke thinks will have a very important bearing upon the politics of this country. Regularly appointed delegates from the three main parties, and also from the Negro Protective party, were in attendance. Beside these there were representatives from the Socialists, and one branch of the Prohibition party. Many plans were considered, but the only feasible one seemed to be to unite in one new party, with a new name and and a new emblem.

Various names were proposed that should fit the case: Union Party, Union Reform party, Home Protection, this was proposed by a woman, and it was the favorite slogan of the late Francis E. Willard. Independent, American, and other names were brought forward and offered to the convention with many neat speeches, but the one finally adopted by the convention was the Union Reform party, and the emblem adopted was clasped hands!

A lengthy preamble recited the evils existing under our Republican form of government, and was followed by a single plank called the Initiation and Ref-

This culmination of the union is directly the result of a recent enactment, called the Pugh law, which practically disfranchises all minor parties of the state. The movement is expected to become national.

It may be remembered the Prohibition party refused to fuse at their State convention, but as the new party has a strong Prohibition plank the hope of the supporters of this new movement is that they will yet join with them, as they will otherwise be unable to keep their franchise.

SPOKE FOR THE WOMEN

Miss Brehm Did Her Best at City Hall.

THEY SHOULD GOVERN

Some Reasons For the Advancement of Disfranchised-An Excellent Lecture by a Talented Lady.

Miss Marie Brehm delivered an interesting lecture last night at city hall. In part she said:

"Of the 40 departments of work in the Woman's Christian Temperance union it is but natural for the superintendent of each to endeavor to convince her audience that her department is the most important. My department is franchise, and it is most important.

"In a republic every question must be settled by vote; the franchise department is the only one the liquor dealers oppose and resolve against.

"Women have been taught for 6,000 years that suffrage would not be a good thing for them. Deborah was more courageous than the new woman, she was judge of Israel. Hildah taught in a college while her husband was keeper of the king's wardrobe. It changed the usual order, the wife a teacher, the man sewing on buttons.

"The ideal woman spoken of in the last chapter of Proverbs not only clothed her household in purple and fine linen. but she bought land and dealt with mer-

"The Bible should be taken as whole, and Christ's attitude toward the woman of his day was always that of perfect equality. No woman ever betraved the Master with a kiss. No woman spat upon him or put a crown of thorns upon his brow. But the box of precious ointment is spoken of whereever the Bible shall be heard. The ministering of their substance to him is what we read of.

"The greatest claim that women can ever make is that Christ paid just as great a price for her redemption as for man's. Not what Paul gave as instruction for special cases, but what the Book as a whole teaches. Eyen Paul learns this at the last as his final summing up of the matter: 'Neither Jew nor Greek, neither bond or free, neither male nor female, but all one.

"When man wishes to embody some great idea he always chooses a woman to represent that idea. The Goddess of Liberty; the picture of justice, a woman holding scales with a bandage over her eyes. Poor dear! How many women still keep that bandage on!

"Chicago offered a prize for the best embodiment of her work in securing the courted World's fair, awarded it to the statue of a young woman, with a determined air and for a motto, 'I Will. Love, charity, mercy, hope, all these we always see represented by a woman. A woman's head adorns the silver dollar, while on the copper cents we see a man's head.

"It is granted that woman's influence has always been for good. Says someone, 'Do you really think that women will vote?' She would answer, 'I do, and before long!' We are living in a fast age. Steam and electricity carry us quickly. A thought is carried around the globe in but a few seconds, unless someone cuts the cable. Sentiment is being made along the line of moral reform with the same rapidity with which we are moving along. The good old time for which a few sigh has few

"Columbus went to a woman for support with his great project, and a woman sacrificed her pleasures in the interests of science. Had Queen Isabella forseen the present situation it is probable she would have refused. It took 300 years for the world to realize what conrage and lofty ambition. So we can draw some solace from the fact that Neal Dow had his birthday observed throughout the world while he yet lived. Susan B.
